First in Mission

During the month of September, First United Methodist Church will provide two (2) servers for the supper meal on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday from 5:00 PM to 5:45 PM. A sign-up sheet is at the back of the sanctuary on the kiosk. Another opportunity to help the Salvation Army is to donate pre-sweetened Kool-Aid and/or packaged gravy mixes. These items can be placed in the grocery carts at the back of the sanctuary.

An ongoing mission that is provided through FUMC is the LOVE Fund. This fund provides Emergency Assistance to people on a walk-in basis (Tuesday and Wednesday 10:00 AM - 12:00 PM) for gas vouchers, City Go Passes, rent assistance and utilities assistance.

Funds for this ministry are supported by donations and the 2016 Christmas Eve collection. For more information contact Rhonda Bird or Susan Winston.

Sermon Notes & Outline

...Now I'm Found: Enough

...Now I'm Found

Luke takes a full chapter to drive home a single point with three memorable parables. The Pharisees and teachers of the law complained upon "catching" Jesus hanging out with sinners. In a masterful response, Jesus taught them with earthly parables so they could gain a heavenly perspective. I once was lost, but Now I'm Found! All of heaven celebrated when you and I turned back to God. Let us celebrate with heaven as each person who once was lost shouts this praise, "Now I'm Found!"

- 9/10/2017 - You Are Enough, Luke 15:1-7
- 9/17/2017 - Treasure Hunt, Luke 15:8-10
- 9/24/2017 - Running to the Lost, Luke 15:11-32

HOW SWEET
THE SOUND THAT SAVED
A WRETCH LIKE ME
BUT NOW I ONCE WAS LOST
I'M FOUND
WAS BLIND
